MR. J. SOLOMON

Respectfully announces that he has recently returned from an extended tour in South America, where he secured a large variety of

PRECIOUS STONES, CURIOSITIES, ANTIQUES, ETC.

He is now conducting at the above address the only establishment of the kind in the United States, having for sale a vast collection of TROPICAL BUTTERFLIES and BEETLES, rare MINERALS, of the most superb description; beautiful HUMMING-BIRDS, mounted for the hair and for ladies' hats, and exquisite specimens of INDIAN and HINDOO WORK. In his stock is varied and extensive, and the admirer of Art in Jewelry will find on exhibition much to commend.

Enterprising Agents at important centres in South America are engaged in collecting and forwarding everything that is original, rare, and beautiful.

Although many of the articles can never be duplicated, the prices will be found quite moderate. Visitors, whether intending to purchase or not, are always politely received; and the proprietor respectfully solicits that portion of the public patronage which the inducements, as heretofore recited, entitle him to receive.
